

Board Mandate

The Board's mandate is bestowed upon it by the Constitution, its By laws and Board approved policies. The Board exists to serve the organization and its members using these documents as its charter/mandate. It needs an annual work plan to ensure it stays the course but it doesn't need a written mandate per say.